Dear Mr Lange

Remaking the Broadcasting Services (Events) Notice (No. 1) 2010

I am writing to the Office of Impact Analysis (OIA) regarding the Broadcasting Services (Events) Notice (No. 1) 2010 which, as per the Legislation Act 2003, had been scheduled to sunset on 1 April 2023. However, it is proposed that the instrument is to be remade without significant amendment.

The Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development, Communications and the Arts (the Department) certifies that the Notice is operating effectively and efficiently, and that therefore an Impact Assessment is not required for this regulation to be remade.

The assessment that the regulation is operating effectively and efficiently has been informed by a public consultation process from 11 October 2022 to 6 December 2022. This process included targeted consultation with free-to-air broadcasters; subscription television and streaming services; and sporting bodies.

I also note that the regulatory burden to business, community organisations or individuals has been quantified using the Australian Government's Regulatory Burden Measurement framework. These are provided below.

Average annual regulatory costs (from business as usual)
Change in costs ($ million)	Business	Community organisations	Individuals	Total change in costs
Total, by sector	$0	$0	$0	$0

I acknowledge that OIA will publish this letter for transparency purposes.

If you have any queries about this advice, please contact me on [REDACTED]

Yours sincerely
